CONGRATULATIONS! to NACMOAA. We did it again! MOAA Levels of Excellence (LOE) and the Col. Marvin J. Harris Communication Awards for 2024! I am just in awe as to what this chapter can do. Not too shabby for a bunch of old retired guys and gals. Also want to give a special shout out to our newsletter editor, Mrs. Roberta Rice. She has the daunting task of corralling all of us in providing inputs for the newsletter, making sense of what we send her and then having to format it and get it out to the chapter. And she does it with a smile to boot! Roberta, thank you for what you do.

Back in March Bob Wallace and I were invited to be the guest speakers at the Northern Arizona VA Health Care System (NAVAHCS) Vietnam War Veteran Day Commemoration. The weather was a little blustery and cool, however we persevered with a nice group of veterans and friends in attendance. Bob and I both got to share some of our experiences during our time spent in Vietnam. At times it was difficult to share, however I am glad that I did. It was truly an honor to be a part of the event.

Last week I had the privilege to present the MOAA awards to two outstanding ROTC (Army and Air Force) cadets. It is a task that I really enjoy. When you are on the stage, and you look up and see all those young faces and realize that the future of our nation and Armed Forces is there in front of you. And to think that I have grandkids that are older than those cadets sitting in the stands! I am totally amazed and honored to see that our nation is in good hands. Alex Torrance gets that honor for the JROTC at Prescott High School. Thanks Alex.

A few weeks ago, we sent out a survey to all chapter members to kind of get a pulse of our chapter health. Thank you to all that took the time to fill out the form and send it back in. Giving a breakdown, most were very satisfied to satisfied. Some of the comments were another convenience of location, comraderies of chapter members, have a better interface with the local VA, need to do more in the Veteran community, recruit, and have the cadets participate. These were not all- just some of the ones that I highlighted. And on that note – our luncheons. I have shared most of this info with our/your board members. When we plan our luncheons, we ask chapter members RSVP their intent to be there. Why? – I must provide numbers to our host on how many to "cook provide food for etc", we are billed on that number. We have a very thin margin for error. We make no money at all based on what we charge chapter members. When those that RSVP to attend and then don't show (Yes, I understand things happen and I aways believe family first), it puts a financial burden on our chapter. At our last luncheon we had seven no-shows, and we were still as a chapter obligated to pay the full amount. Being honest as a chapter we cannot afford the luxury of writing those no-shows off. So, in the interest of the survival of our chapter, if you RSVP to attend we are asking you to follow through with payment. Otherwise, we will slowly disintegrate as a chapter.

And another quote to live by. "When you have conflict, that means that there are truths that have to be addressed on each side of the conflict. And when you have a conflict, then it's an educational process to try to resolve the conflict. And to resolve that, you have to get people on both sides of the conflict involved so that they can dialogue" – Dolores Huerta

Just a reminder, our next luncheon will be held at the Prescott Lakes Country Club, thank you to Alex for setting it up. Also, I think we have a great speaker lined up – Jeff Timm, FCC (SW), USN, Ret, Director of Military and Veterans Services. Looking forward to seeing you all there.

Clyde Meade

I'm sure you'll all be breathing a sigh of relief because, for this newsletter, I'm not going to talk about Dues!!! However, I would like to thank all of you who have paid for 2025 and beyond. It is of great assistance to us administratively when everyone's dues are up to date and no more reminders need to be sent out. Nevertheless, please keep in mind that we support our local ROTC and area Cadets with scholarships. Your direct donations to our Treasurer and our bi-monthly 50-50 drawings go to support this worthy endeavor. Thank you for your support. Your contributions are the only source we have for making these scholarship awards possible.

If you missed last month's NACMOAA Luncheon, you missed a good fellowship and an informative speaker. We learned about all the latest scams that are costing, especially older people, hundreds of thousands of dollars. It was a true eye-opening presentation.

May 26th - Memorial Day. Please join me in honoring the sacrifices of our all our military members, who gave the ultimate sacrifice in defense of our nation, our Constitutional values, and our way of life. It's about Freedom! Remember too those of us who are right now today, "On station and ready for call for fire." They are continually on the firing line and are in harm's way. Memorial Day – A time to remember, and give a salute, to our Comrades in Arms.

May God Bless the United States of America.

Dues and Donations can be made in one of two ways:
1) In person at our bi-monthly Luncheons; or
2) Mailed to: NACMOAA
P.O. Box 95
Dewey, AZ 86327 (Make checks payable to: "NACMOAA").

Note: MOAA National has instituted a new online option for payment. However, our Chapter has yet to embrace that new method of payment. Further examination of that process is being conducted, and we will inform you if/when we determine that it is a safe, suitable, and advantageous method for payment. Thank you for your patience in this matter.

As your Public Information Officer, I am continually looking for ways to let others know of our Chapter's activities and events and to locate prospective new members. Please invite any eligible prospective member to join our organization. We are gaining new members and want to make them feel appreciated and welcomed. If you see someone at our meetings that you don't recognize, please introduce yourself and welcome them to our NAC MOAA family.

LEGISLATIVE AFFAIRS UPDATE

by COL (RET) Steve Woods, U.S. Army

Well, MOAA's April 2025 Advocacy in Action (AiA) event, where members from across the nation joined MOAA staffers on Capitol Hill to bring our legislative priorities to congressional offices in person, has been successfully concluded. This year MOAA members from across the country, to include Arizona, and staffers emphasized the organization's five priorities for 2025 during AiA; improving access to healthcare, supporting family caregivers, expanding the end of wait times for Veterans exposed to toxic substances, a continued emphasis on the quality and availability of military housing, and promoting the military spouse hiring act. The April Military Officer magazine contains valuable information on these five priorities and MOAA's advocacy efforts. I encourage you to read the articles and then visit the LAC to send letters to our congressional members using the pre-drafted messages:

NACMOAA Surviving Spouse Liaison

NACMOAA Surviving Spouse Members launch a new campaign to serve veterans

The NAC Surviving Spouse Members are embarking on a new project to reach out to our veterans who are currently in hospice care. We would like to make sure these veterans are not forgotten and thanked for their service to our country. The name of the organization who facilitates contact with these veterans is Veteran's Last Patrol (501 c 3 EIN 83-2765131).

You will find details on this organization below along with ways to help, including sending greeting cards. If you are not able to write cards you can still participate by donating greeting cards to our chapter Surviving Spouse group or donating funds to send the bulk cards in the mail to South Carolina. Please contact me and I will be happy to take your donations.

Mrs. Linda Wolverton, the state and Luke Chapter Surviving Spouse Liaison started this campaign in Arizona and hopefully we can spread the word and reach a number of our Heros.

Summary

The Veteran's Last Patrol connects veteran volunteers to veterans in hospice. We cooperate with medical providers of hospice care to connect volunteers to the patients so that their last patrol isn't alone. It's hard to overestimate the importance of friendship during end-of-life care. Last Patrol brings new friendships when friendships matter most. It's hard to overestimate the importance of friendship during end-of-life care.

When America's veterans go into hospice care they often lose contact with family, friends, and with the military community. Some are alone. Some sit quietly in nursing homes. Many families are loving and attentive to their hospice patient, but appreciate getting the support, connection, and information that a friend from the military community can provide. Last Patrol helps provide that support.

Some stories are only shared between veterans. The exceptionality of military experience is such that a special bond of service results. Many veterans describe their military service as a singularly unique period of their lives. As many veterans approach death, meeting a new supportive friend, sharing stories, and reawaking memories of "patrolling" with their buddies can be richly rewarding for both the patient and their families, as well as veteran volunteers. Last Patrol brings that service.

Mission Statement

Last Patrol: Our mission is to BEFRIEND, HONOR, and SUPPORT veterans on their Last Patrol.

What Can You do to Help?

Veterans can volunteer to visit the veteran in hospice. Talk, listen and share the veterans' experiences. The veteran can be comfortable in talking with the volunteer, because the volunteer has shared experiences. If you would like more information, call (864-580-8005) or admin@veteranslatpatrol.org .

Veterans, surviving spouses and military spouses can send cards of Thank You to Our Heros. The cards may be sent to Veteran Last Patrol 140B Venture Blvd. Spartanburg, SC 29306

Cards are gladly accepted all year.

What REAL ID Rules Mean for Military-Connected Travelers By Kevin Killey - April 29, 2025

All DoD-issued identification – to include IDs with indefinite expiration dates – will remain valid for airline travel after new REAL ID compliance rules take effect May 7, 2025, Transportation Security Administration (TSA) officials confirmed with MOAA.

DoD IDs, including those issued to dependents, are on the official TSA list of acceptable identification "and will still be an acceptable form of ID following the implementation of REAL ID," an official said via email. VA-issued Veteran Health Identification Cards (VHICs) are also on the approved list.

MOAA has fielded concerns from members who have encountered long delays or other challenges when using DoD-issued IDs at airports. Military.com first reported on issues faced by holders of IDs with "INDEF" expiration dates in 2024; at the time, TSA reportedly was considering removing "INDEF" IDs from the approved list because of issues with screening technology.

A recent Military.com report noted confusion surrounding the issue, including a since-deleted social media post from an Army installation falsely stating retiree and family member IDs would no longer be accepted after the REAL ID changeover.

Rejected ID?

If your ID card is rejected, a TSA spokesman told MOAA that "[a] military ID should not be rejected, as it's an acceptable form of ID. If this does happen, they should ask for a Supervisory Transportation Security Officer (STSO)."

Please contact your lawmakers and ask them to support these bills

H.R. 109, the Transparency and Effective Accountability Measures for Caregivers Act or the TEAM Veteran Caregivers Act, would require the VA to formally recognize caregivers through documentation in the veteran's health record, mandate standardized notification letters to ensure transparent communication regarding clinical determinations that impact caregivers and veterans, and provide a temporary 90-day benefit extension for veterans deemed ineligible under the VA Program of Comprehensive Assistance for Family Caregivers to safeguard their care during a transition period.

S. 668, the Supporting Access to Falls Education and Prevention and Strengthening Training Efforts and Promoting Safety Initiatives—or SAFE STEPS for Veterans Act of 2025, would establish the Office of Falls Prevention within the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). The primary role of the office would be to oversee and improve the VA's initiatives aimed at preventing falls among veterans, with the goal of lowering the frequency of falls and associated health care expenses. The office would be required to develop and implement standards of care and facilitate coordination with departments to promote research, educational and training activities related to falls prevention.

Please contact me with questions or concerns.

All the best;
Sharon

IN THE COMMUNITY - NAC MOAA IMPACTS OUR LOCAL COMMUNITY

Bob Wallace, Marine Corps, 1964-1994 and Clyde Mead, Navy, 1971-2004 were featured speakers at the recent Vietnam War Veterans Day of Commemoration. This event was sponsored by Northern Arizona Health Care System at their Prescott site.

Both Bob and Clyde served tours of duty in Vietnam during their years of service and were honored to speak to their military comrades and their families.

On April 28, 2025, Arizona Devil Dog Charities Chairman Bob Wallace presented a $3,000 check to Walt Campbell, Exalted Ruler of the Prescott Elks Lodge. The funds are to support the development of a Veterans Memorial Park on a bluff over-looking Fain Lake, Lynx Creek Valley and beyond to the Bradshaw Mountains. The park will include a ramada with bar-b-que equipment, picnic tables, fire pit, flag pole and a grassed/fenced dog park. Bob is Board Chairman and Personal Affairs Officer for NACMOAA. Others shown above are Marine Corps Devil Dogs and members of the Prescott Elks lodge who are veterans.
